NISS GRAD - Behavioral Expectations

Please note that both the ceremony and the all night Dry Grad party are school events. In accordance with School District 85 policies, students, parents and guests may not use, be in possession of, or be under the influence of, drugs or alcohol at school events.

We want all concerned to enjoy Grad 2012, however, anyone who is under the influence of, or using, drugs or alcohol will be asked to leave and will not be able to participate in the remaining activities. We will be working with the assistance of the Port McNeill RCMP. Students who are under the influence of, or using, drugs or alcohol or who display inappropriate behaviour will also be subject to school based consequences such as suspensions.
